

Mount Pleasant High School
Academy of Energy and Sustainability Criteria and Expectations

Academic Criteria

Academy of Energy and Sustainability students are expected to be successful in their academy program coursework. Students can be removed from the Academy of Energy and Sustainability for:

- not making academic progress
- academic probation (academic progress will be reviewed at the end of the semester to determine continuation)
- not responding to interventions
- disciplinary actions
- suspension
- serious and/or repeated offenses

Attendance and Behavior

To maintain enrollment in the Academy of Energy and Sustainability, students must meet the behavior and attendance standards of the transfer policy.

For transfer students: CCS Board policy #4115

For all other students: CCS Board policy #4400

Interventions

Students not meeting the continuation criteria for the Academy of Energy and Sustainability academics will be placed on academic probation. Communication will be made with the parent and a plan put in place to help the student be successful. Possible interventions include:

- Student and/or parent conferences
- Before and after school tutoring with the teacher
- Power Block tutoring through our AOES Peer Tutoring Program
- Meetings with counselor
- Small group instruction
- Organizational and behavioral contracts
- Homework intervention block

Athletics and Extracurricular

Upon acceptance into the Academy of Energy and Sustainability, students acknowledge they have established their athletic and extracurricular eligibility for the entire school year at Mount Pleasant High School. Under extraordinary circumstances a hardship request may be filed with the Superintendent/Superintendent's designee.

When accepting placement in the Academy of Energy and Sustainability you are agreeing to complete the entire school year. If for some reason you leave the Academy of Energy and Sustainability, you will not be admitted to the program again.
