

HRMS Morning Announcements

April 26, 2021

- Attention Patriot Fans- Are you planning on coming out to soccer, volleyball, or baseball games this spring? Tickets are going to be done differently this year. You must purchase your tickets through Ticket Spicket; there will be NO TICKETS SOLD AT THE GATE. You must go online to Ticket Spicket and purchase your ticket for each game. Tickets will be released each Sunday for the upcoming week's athletic events. Simply go online and purchase your Tickets. Links to purchase tickets can be found on the Harris Road Athletics Website. Please go online, get your tickets, and come out to support your friends as Harris Road takes to the fields and court on their quests for conference championships! Go Patriots!
- Yearbook sales end this Friday! If you want to guarantee yours, you only have till Friday April 30th. Go to Jostens.com to order yours today.
- Harris Road Baseball Scored a hard fought 6-5 win over Hickory Ridge Thursday. After falling behind early, the Patriots climbed back into the game because of strong pitching from Matthew Maske and Jackson Caldwell. Tyler Hicks led the offensive charge going 2 for 3 with 3 stolen bases.
- Congratulations to the Battle of the Books team for taking first place in the county competition on Friday. Aneesh Suddala, Annette Opoku-Mensah, Allison Foster, Carson Verburg, Reba-Marie Meskill, Elizabeth Munyer and Minah Koo worked together to bring home the win.
- Congratulations to the girls soccer team for their 2 to 0 victory over Hickory Ridge. Alayna Humrickhouse opened the scoring up with a late 1st half goal giving the Patriots a 1 to 0 lead at halftime. Lily Lavespere added a goal in the second half to conclude the scoring. Shout outs to the entire defense for holding a very talented Mavericks team not only zero points, but to only a couple shots on goal. Next game is Tuesday at Concord. The ladies will be home again Thursday against JN Fries. Come out and support your Harris Road soccer teams.
- The Lady Patriots Volleyball team remained perfect last Thursday, by defeating previously undefeated Hickory Ridge 3 games to 0. Leading the way at the service line were Tatiana Bailey and Arianna Lopez, who combined for 21 Aces over the match. Also having strong games at the net were Jordyn Gray, Kali Kurilko, and Katie Emig. Contributing solid all-around games were Ella Reilly and Gianna Heitz. The ladies will next play at home tomorrow against Concord.
- Homepage teachers, please distribute the Bus Ridership forms to in-person students this morning. Parents should complete the form even if a bus is not requested. There is an option on the form for NO BUS NEEDED. 8th grade students, this is your request for a bus to high school next year. Forms should be returned by Thursday, April 29th.
