

HRMS Morning Announcements

March 15, 2023

- The Pokemon Club will meet this Friday at 8 am in the cafeteria.
- Crochet Club will meet in Mrs. Wood's room from 4-5 tomorrow.
- The HRMS Beta club will soon begin accepting applications for new members. Sixth and seventh grade students who are interested in serving our school and community are invited to meet in the cafeteria TOMORROW at 8 am to learn more.
- Morning Announcement- For College & Career Week today, we are "Opening the Door to Your Next Step". It's so nice to see all you students in your future high school colors & gear. Today students and staff are Recognizing their Roots and wearing their elementary colors and gear. In preparation for your next steps, we practice PERSEVERANCE.
- College & Career Week Fun Fact: Today's College & Career Week Fun Fact: What is an HBCU? HBCU stands for Historically Black College and University. HBCU's were originally founded to provide higher education opportunities for African Americans; however, they have enrolled and graduated many students, regardless of their ethnicity, race, or income level. The United States has 107 HBCUs and 12 of them are in North Carolina. Tomorrow make sure to "Look to the Future" and dress in your college gear!" Students and staff are encouraged to participate!"